everybody is beautiful

*the beauty of our world is mirrored in the eyes of people we meet, and it somehow seems that faces of friends without smiles seem incomplete.
it's nice to note that when we try to spread friendship and cheer, we realize the true meanings of the feelings which we hold dear.*

*soft voices echoing from a distance tell of unity and peace, while myriad images are brought to light, compelling brotherhood to increase.
hand in hand we tread the paths which lead to contentment of mind. side by side we search for love--- and the meaning of truth to find.*

*step to step we proudly march towards unknown realms of good.
our own satisfaction is realized in helping others as we should.
then we can stand aside to see,
the results of what we've done.
for, it is true that friendships are never missed---- until we have discovered them gone.*

*together, we look into the future and envision our destiny.
together, we are a part of life, and, this part of life we see:
we behold a place where friendships and love,
seem to never fade or die.
it is plainly seen that this place is called----- trimble technical high!*

green b. annual staff presents their teacher of the year

mr. theron byrd

mr. theron byrd, our honoree, came to tech in the fall of 1948. he has taught government and history here for the past twenty-five years.

in the years he has been here, mr. byrd has been a willing sponsor wherever needed. he has been senior sponsor and has helped with many other extracurricular activities, not only has he served the students, but he has also served the faculty as classroom teacher representative. at present mr. byrd is student council sponsor and head of the history department.

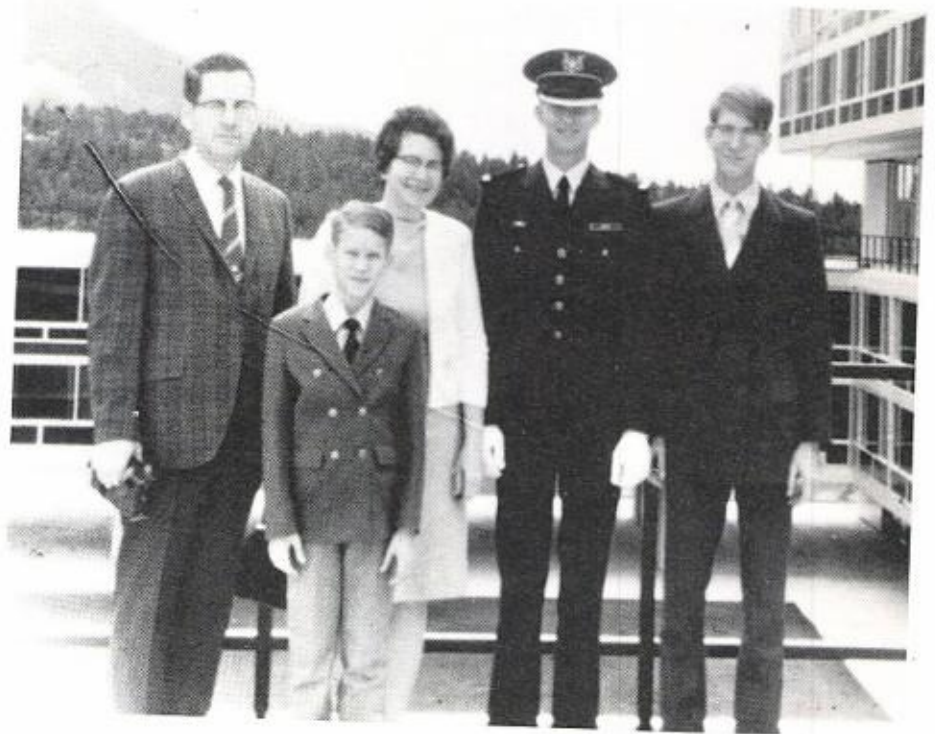

mr. byrd's work with youth does not stop at the end of the school day. he can be found almost any evening working with the youth of the poly methodist church or driving a bus for some youth group. he has also been a scout leader.

we at trimble tech are very proud to have had such an inspirational instructor. everybody is a more beautiful person for having had mr. theron byrd for a teacher.

behind the scenes with mr. byrd always a devoted father, mr. byrd spends happy moments with sons bill, johnny, and david.

mr. and mrs. byrd's hearts are filled with joy and pride as they along with sons johnny and david, pose with cadet bill at the united states air force academy.

mr. byrd has always been a kind gentle man as shown here with his kitten.

some might complain about military service but not our honoree- he flashes his famous smile.

behind every great man there stands a woman- mr. byrd is no exception as shown here with wife lou.

homecoming '72

ronny land displays his decorating talent.

"look what i got!" exclaims miss ford.

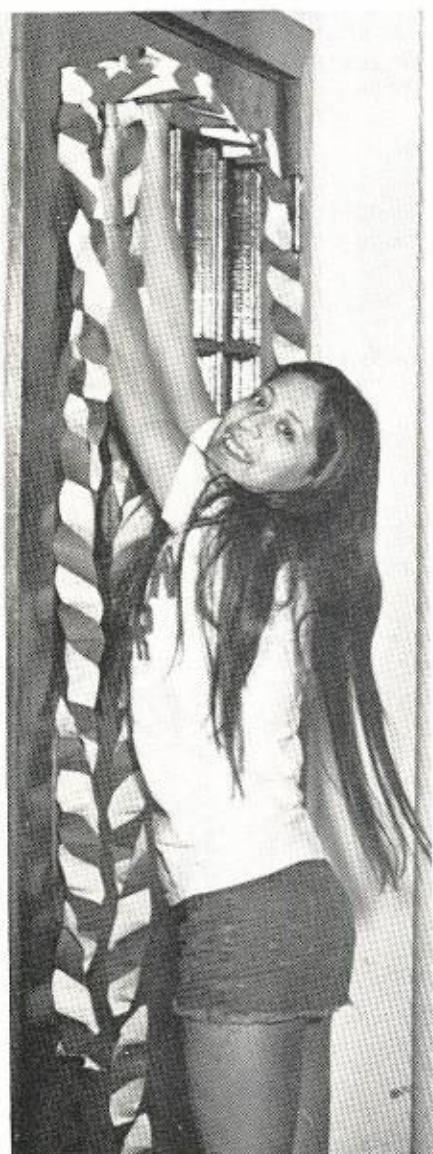

coach weaver asks all to support the team.

mr. green b. trimble returns home as do many exes.

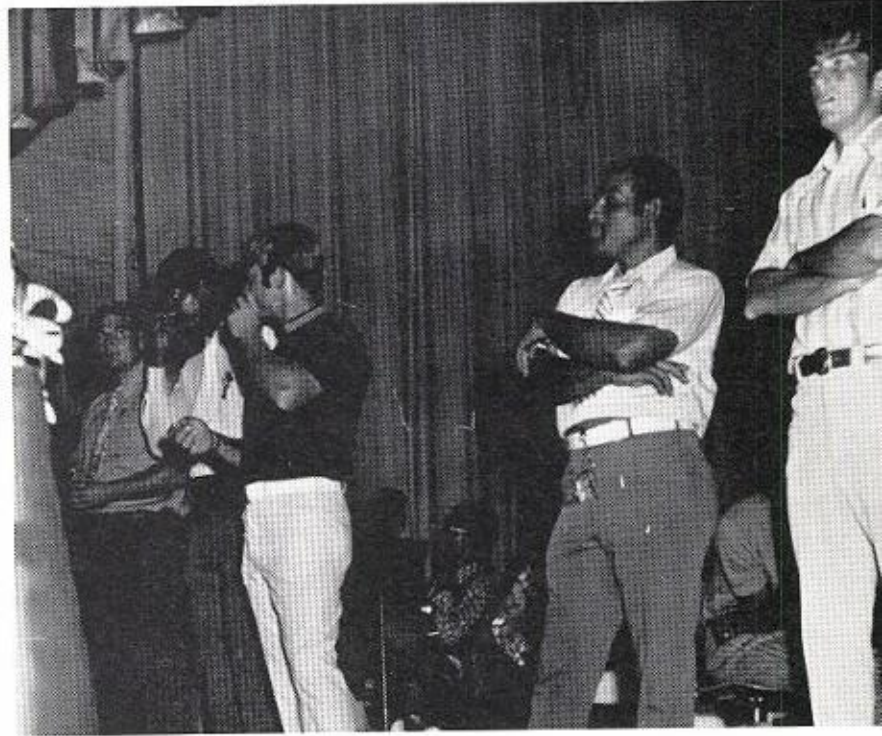

speaking to the student body is david brim ex-president.

"i'm reaching as high as i can!" exclaims jodi valenciano.

kay yells "look out here we come!"

modeling the latest men's fashions are coaches thomas, levels, ross, clark stacy.

donald griffin escorts pam hill, first princess, to stage.

robert rivera escorts queen olga saenz to her throne.

johnny johnson escorts linda white, second princess, to the queen's court.

saenz selected homecoming queen tears of joy come to olga.

a very happy little girl.

homecoming this year as every other year wouldn't be complete without a queen's court. this year olga saenz was selected the homecoming queen for the 1972-73 school year with pam hill, first princess and linda white, second princess.

olga came to tech from j. p. elder and her major is data processing. she has been a cheerleader for three years and is an active member in many school projects. she has been elected class favorite her sophomore and junior year.

there is no reason why olga should not have been this year's homecoming queen. it's plain to see why, for a little 4'11" girl with bright smile there couldn't have been a better selection.

olga saenz

exes and babies return to tech ex racheal herrera and deanna magallon enjoy watching homecoming activities.

val terrorza, sharon thomas, robert allen, belinda messa herrera, and danna sales are among those on the coming home court.

these babies perhaps will come to tech as their mothers did.

the school was full of exes and many teachers found themselves recognizing their old students.

the school was decorated in green and white and the halls were full of noise. people would try to figure out where their classes used to be and the fellow classmates they remember.

homecoming '72 held many memories for all students and exes. even the teachers will never forget how that day went.

linda herrera and raul herrera seem to say, it's n to be back in front of the camera after all the years.

belinda messa herrera escorted by val terrerza was elected coming home queen for 1972-73.

johnny johnson, linda white, robert rivera and queen olga saenz go onto field at the half time.

raul lopez directs the band on what numbers to play next.

each year after the homecoming game the ex association of tech gives the present students a homecoming dance. this year the dance was held at the national guard armory on mccart. many people went to the dance and it was enjoyed by all who attended. music was provided by a live band and refreshments were on hand.

CABARET

this year at our variety show the theme was "cabaret at tech". under the direction of mrs. elaine beeman, speech teacher, the show was a great success. there were acts from the national mexican dance to modern singing. the best group award went to "the frontier mortician", mr. talent was jimmy gleen and miss talent was alicia jones.

student council members vs. faculty in a game of basketball each year the faculty members participate in various fund raising projects for the students.

this year the student council members vs. faculty members proved to be an exciting game. altogether four games were played, two by the men and two by the women. the series ended "one-all".

day of festive holiday fun

The cast of "remember how christmas used to be" was glad to see it all over with. l to r: daniel pena, jan organ, ronny land, teresa hair, robert hedgepeth, deanette sadler, mary mendoza, frank burnat, sylvia mendoza, felipe sanchez, leticia flores, oscar sims, randolf wilson, yolanda sanchez, billy holiday, joe mendoza, cecilia smith, paula miller, adrian kindles, donald griffin, sharon hill, james simpson, and other not pictured.

deanette sadler winds up sylvia mendoza, a baby doll, in a scene from toyland fantasy.

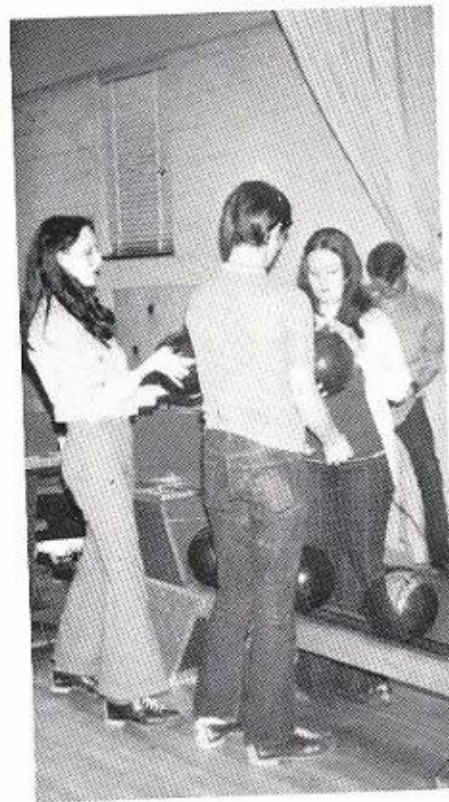

"remember how christmas used to be" was written and directed by paula lehr, assisted by adrian kindles and houston howell.

three teenagers recall how christmas used to be when they were kids with brother and sisters fussing. carolers from mr. riley's choir and a toyland fantasy after midnight gave sparkle to the play.

christmas parties are enjoyed by all miss hardwick seems a bit sad as she leaves at the end of her student teaching.

many parties were away from school like this one which stephen webb, sylvia brock, and robert hedgepeth attended for oea.

john paul lehr tells santa claus (frank burnat) what he wants for christmas.

david lang tell mrs. claus (paula lehr) "we had better both pass chemistry with mrs. roberson's blessings".

mr. o'connor asks santa for all kinds of goodies for his students including a new practice field and parking lots.

mildred irvin, gloria kirvin, paul vasquez, and mrs. drake take time out from annual period to play in the snow.

"i'll never let paula talk me into anything again," exclaims mrs. miller to mr. rauschuber as they get into a snowball fight.

"let me see how fast i can make a snowman," thinks janice stephens.

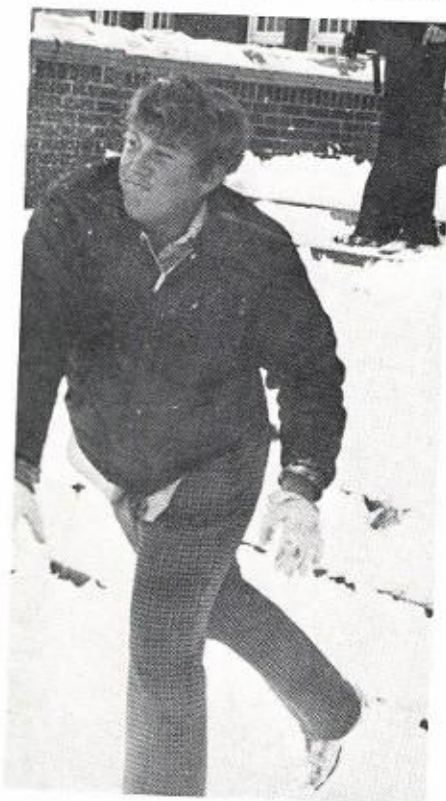

"if mrs. drake knew we were out playing in the snow instead of working on the sports section, i would have to get my schedule changed tomorrow," exclaims daniel pena to james simpson.

miss ford is thinking about whom to hit next.

which way did old man winter go! george gonzales wonders.

"my pitching is better in the off season than in spring training," thinks joe guellete.

this beats coach stacy's history class.

two can play this game.

"canterbury tales" told by seniors senior speech students put on the "canterbury tales" for mrs. beeman's speech classes. santos flores, vincent jones, and randolf wilson were villagers while robert hedgepeth played the knight; faye holder, the wife of bath; maria milan, the student; cecilia smith, the cook; dick stebbins, the squire; and kenneth holland, the skipper.

these students had one day to get their costumes and they couldn't be anything that cost money.

seniors perform the story of "johnny belinda"

mrs. beeman tells student body the basic story of "johnny belinda" in a preview of the play.

lawrence martin, terri lovelace, cheryl gay, and myrtle cooper in a scene from "johnny belinda".

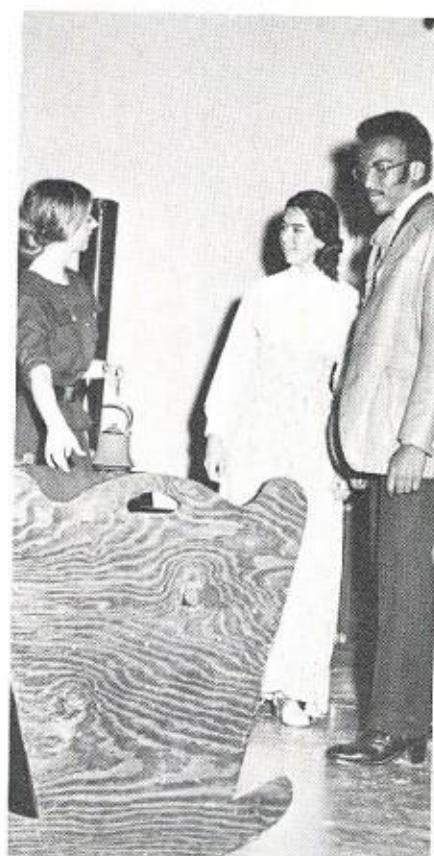

the production of "johnny belinda", the story of a deaf girl, played by terri sue lovelace who is deaf, was a first for any high school.

terri sue gave a touching and poignant performance in this role winning for herself the title of "best actress".

mrs. elaine beeman, speech and drama teacher was assisted in the direction by louis jordan, a student teacher from north texas state university.

david lang and david cuellar talk over some problem in a scene when black mcdonald and mr. dingwell get into an argument.

terri sue lovelace, winner of "best actress", and norman foster, winner of "best actor", in a scene with sofia velasquez.

flash!!! san antonio invaded by tech's f.t.a. members hello, is this hotel security? would you please check on my girls in room 1101, says mrs. murphy.

the palico del rio hilton hotel never knew what they were getting into with this group of girls. pictured here are veronica bill, vangie rios, nancy ramos, terri aguillar, sandra ramos, and victoria velesquez.

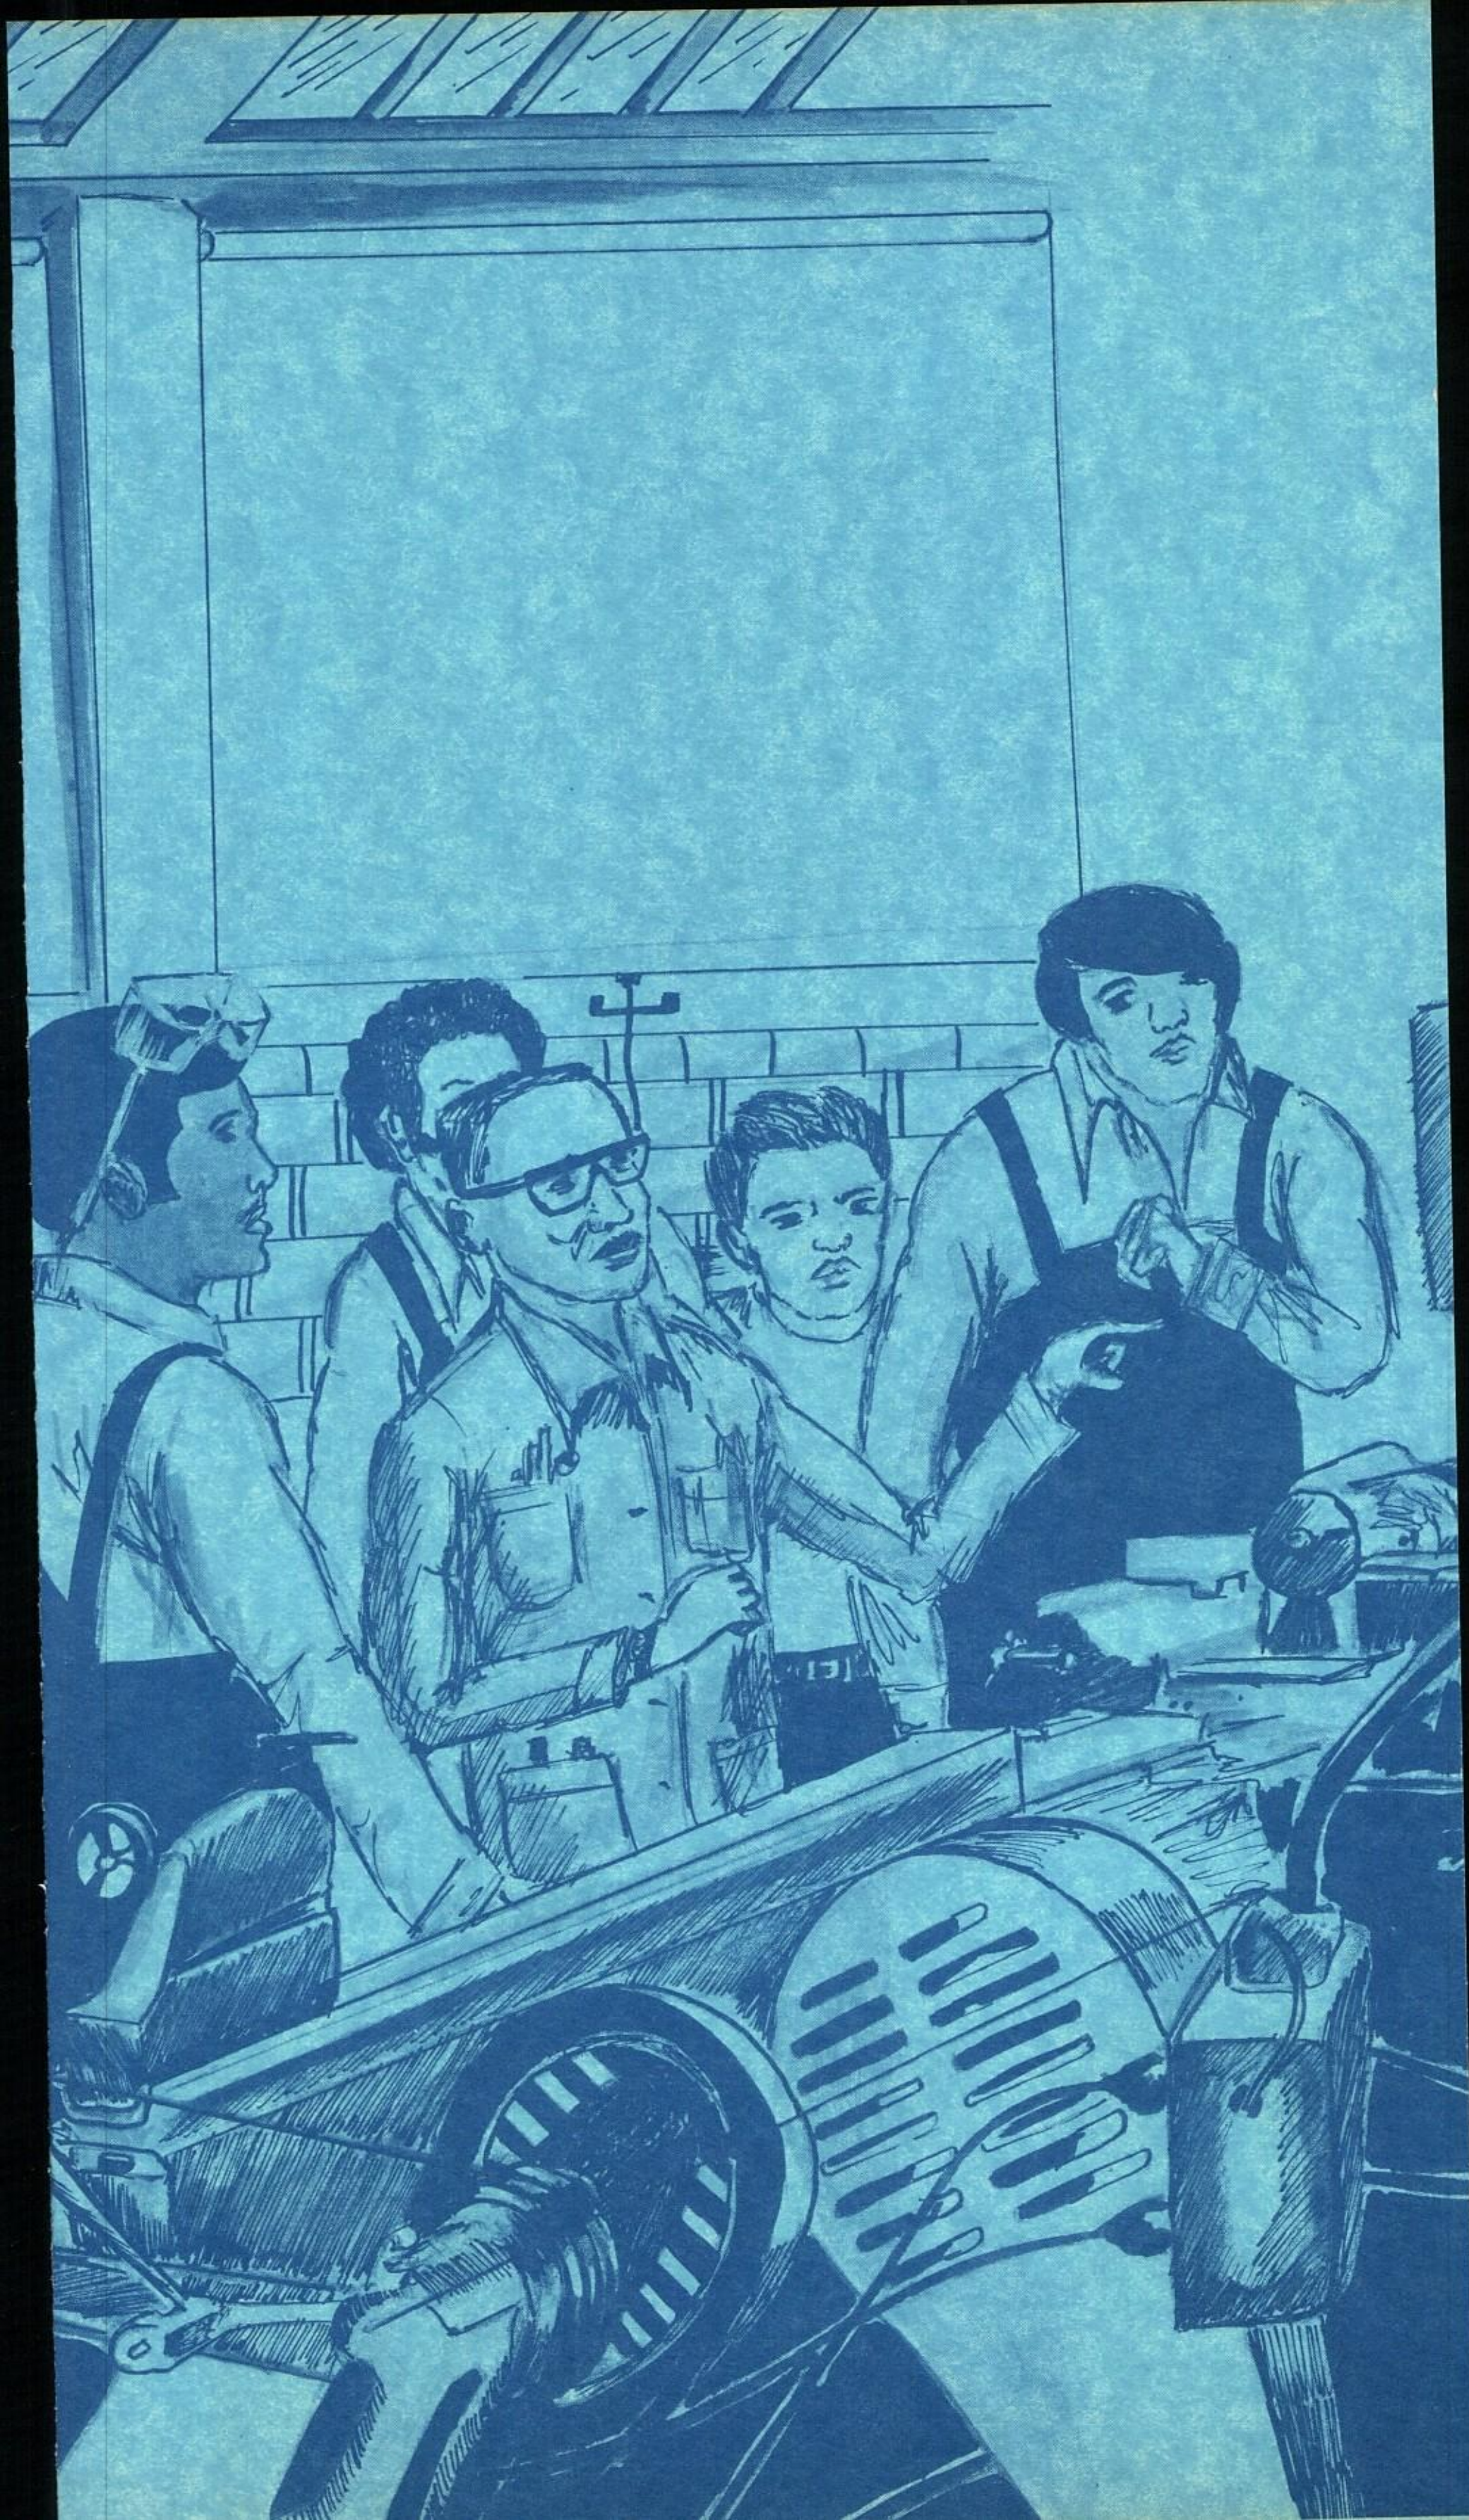

vangie rios, terri aguillar, and sandra ramos take time out to snack on some popcorn.

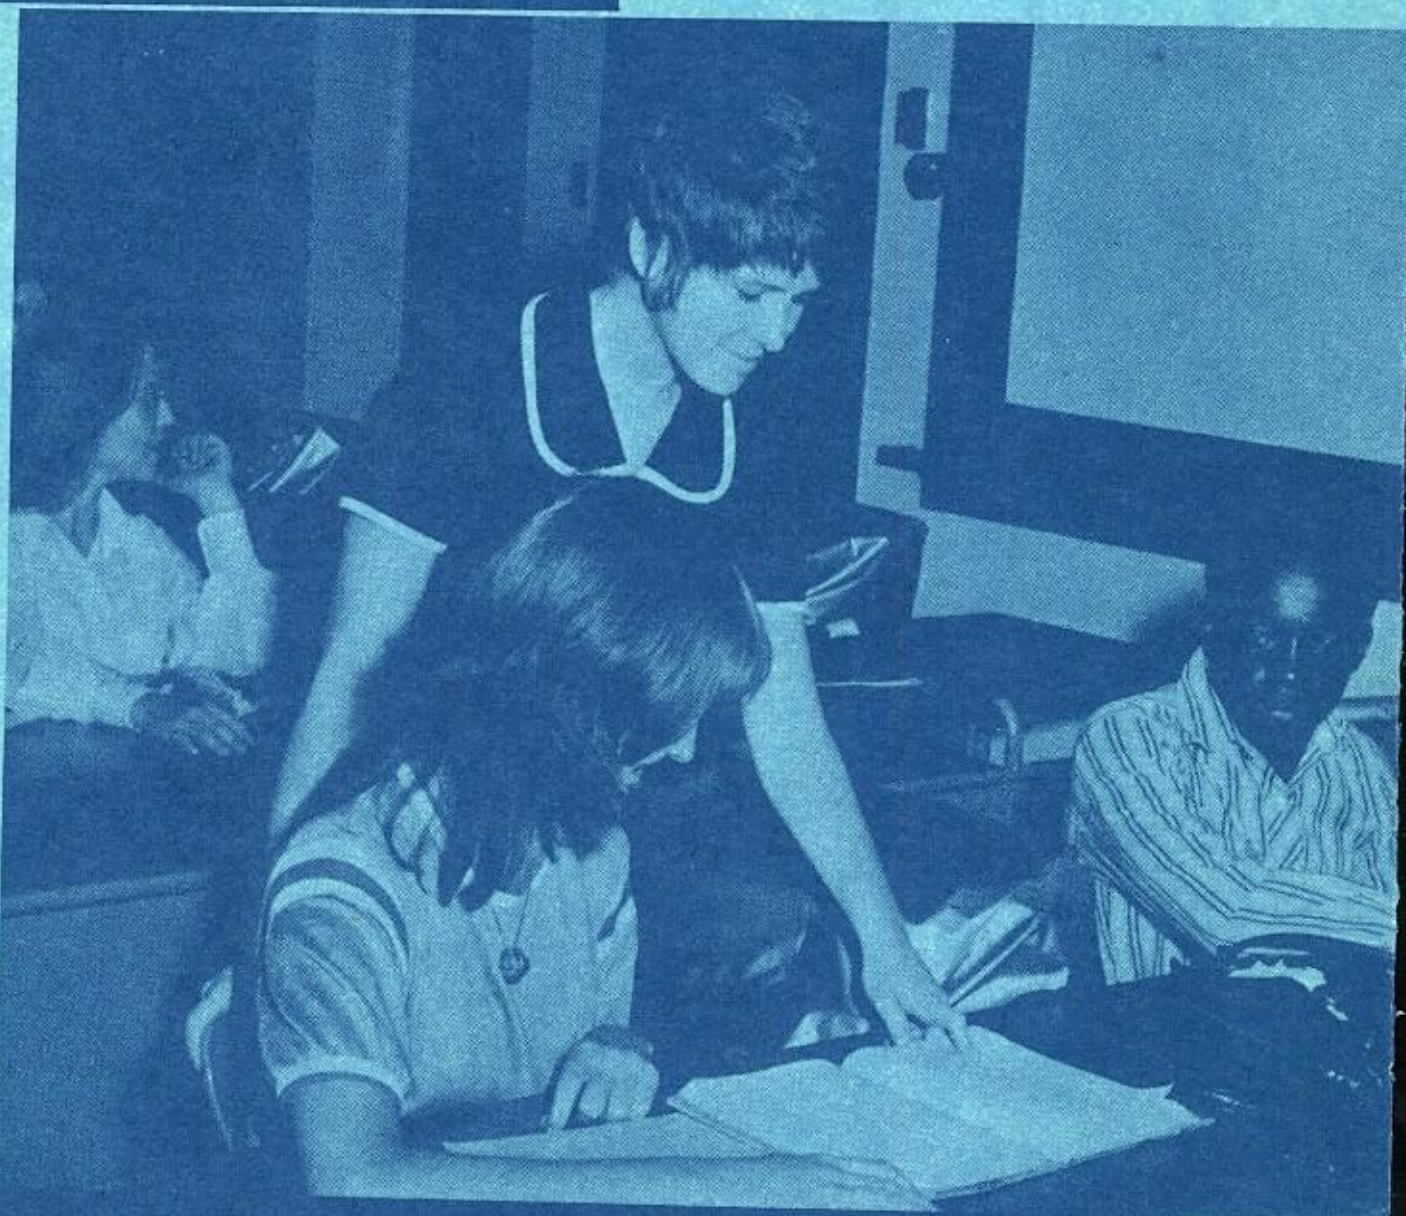

on february 26 thirty-two tech students and sponsors loaded up seven cars and started on an invasion of the city of san antonio. there, the state f.t.a. convention would be held with over six thousand students from the state.

all enjoyed the trip which included a visit to the hemisphere, dining on the river, the alamo, and numerous others, only for it to have ended so soon. san antonio will always be in the hearts of all those who attended the convention and perhaps some day we will return in our own ways.

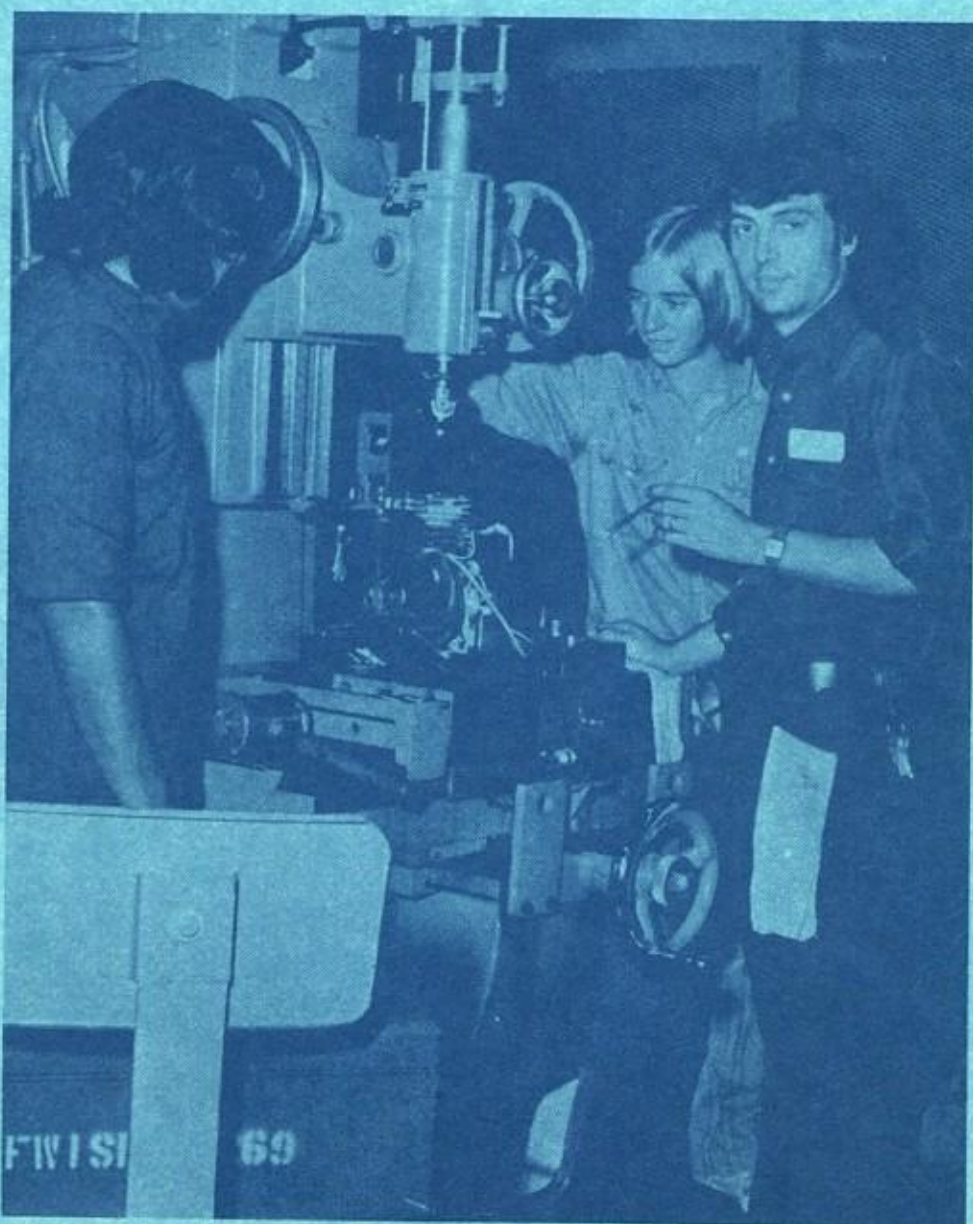

mrs. beeman, janice stephens, robert hedgepeth and mrs. murphy stop to admire some of the shops on the river walk.

outstanding leadership afforded fort worth public schools the fort worth public schools administrators have experience in handling the administration of a large complexed school system. with the new tri-mester going into effect this coming school year, all the experience is needed.

on the secondary level, the tri-mester will give the student an opportunity to take more classes which will enable them to graduate earlier. the administrators have worked long hard hours in developing a plan for tech since we have so many vocational shops involved in this program. we know that the administrators work hard for our school system and we at tech appreciate them for all they have done to make our school better.

seeing a person as he really is instead of looking at the color of his skin is the big advantage we have at tech with the school being one third of each race there aren't any liberal conditions here. all the students get along well with each other and work together even better.

mr. o'connor knows this and because of this tech is progressing more than any other school in fort worth. although he has his mind on many things, mr. O'connor always has the time to listen to any problem a student, parent, or faculty member has.

we at tech are proud to have a man like mr. o'connor as our principal.

expert counseling is the key to success for the graduates for trimble tech. these are times of indecision for the boys and girls as they enter high school for the first time. the counselors' knowledge not only keeps some from dropping out of school, but also helps them in solving their problems.

trimble tech's counselors have available information and wealth of experience which they gladly share with all students who come to them for guidance.

english offers a challenge to creative thinking english teachers in trimble tech use all the new innovative techniques in all planning of their courses. the students themselves have input in the making of plans for each level.

the teachers are engaged in team teaching in order that the students may take advantage of the best from each individual teacher.

the senior year of english is taught as a humanities course. this enables students to do more independent study. all levels stress the application of what is related to the every day life of the student.

tradesmen, technicians, and engineers continue to be well ahead of the present rate of supply because of the evergrowing demands of electrical industry. there are crash training programs in this field which are largely ineffective for the very nature of the electrical industry makes it highly selective from the standpoint of the individual's successful entrance and survival.

r.o.t.c. teaches the cadets safety and marksmanship with fire arms; it also teaches how to organize squads and platoon teams in order to execute military drills. They also learn something about military tactics.

r.o.t.c. teaches the cadets leadership and provides them with the opportunity to assume the responsibilities of commanding at an early stage of life.

they are taught to respect authority, be courteous and orderly at all times, wherever they are.

almost sixty-five percent of the united states military team has had r.o.t.c. training.

in memory

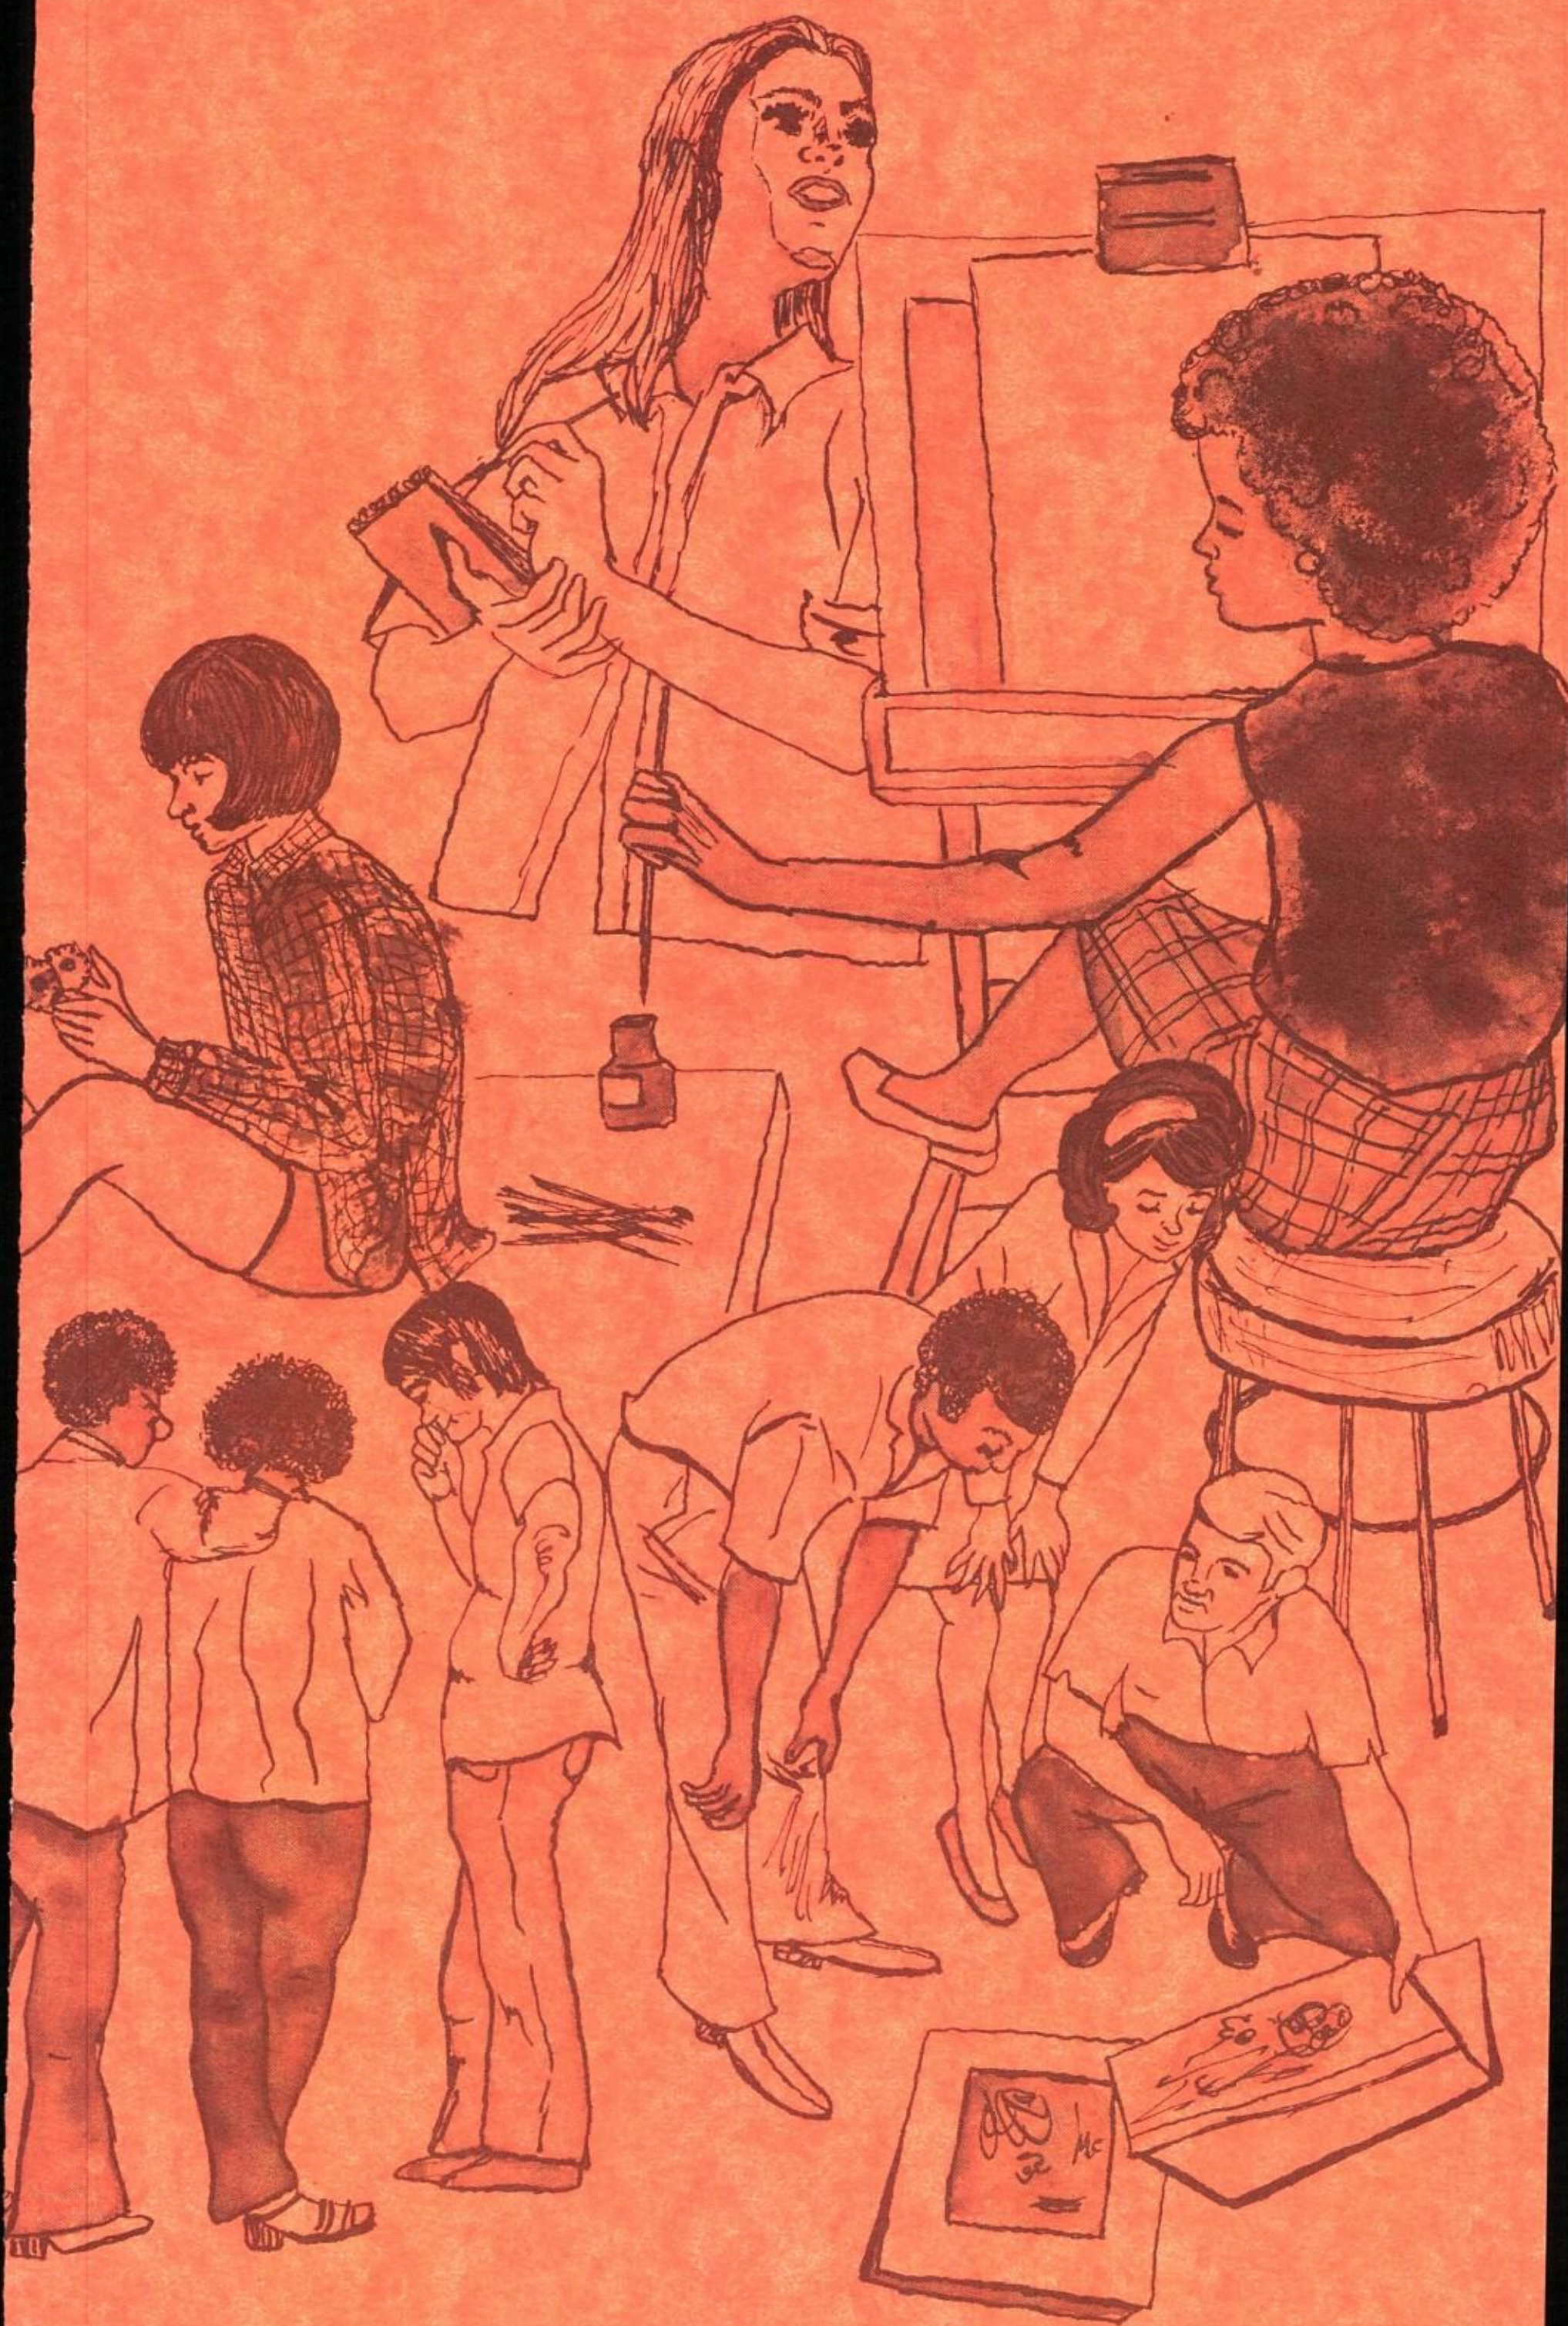

mike bigler
december 12, 1927 - september 2, 1972

the faculty and student body at trimble tech were saddened at the beginning of the year by the sudden death of mr. mike bigler. mr. bigler taught the general construction course at tech and had been with the school for fourteen years.

as a tech graduate, he entered the university of texas and later returned here in the fall of 1958 to teach. he received his 5 year pin in 1962-63, was recalled to active duty with navy spring of '68 and then returned to tech september of 1969.

mr. bigler will always be in the heart of his fellow co-workers as a great friend and in the hearts of the students as an understanding teacher.

this year to increase youth leadership the in-service group of the student council went to area high schools to observe their student government. wyatt, southwest, eastern and western hills, arlington heights, diamond hill, and poly were the schools visited by some 45 student council members. as a whole the groups were pleased with the results but were very happy to return "home" at the end of the day.

as every year some group of students play faculty members in some kind of a game. this year the student council vs. faculty in basketball. the boys played the men and the girls played the women. there were four games played with the girls and boys winning one game each and the faculty men and women doing the same. the money earned went to the student council in which at the end of the year gives some senior boy or girl a scholarship.

the club has many activities such as selling cookies during homecoming, valentine candy grams, cake sales, christmas parties, and the highlight of the year is the state fta convention to be held this year in san antonio.

developing an interest in the teaching profession is the main goal of fta and here at tech its goal is proving to be a success.

fha produces top homemakers for the future making a home comfortable and appealing requires more work than merely dusting the living room furniture for thirty minutes each day while watching "one life to live" on tv. fancy dishes, pretty table settings, and clean surroundings all require the concentrated efforts of a true homemaker. it is a dedicated person who takes time to do the "little extras" that make any home attractive. such knowledge and sense of dedication are stressed by the members of trimble tech's future homemakers of america organization.

making oneself attractive too is another main purpose of fha. a student learns the proper ways to apply make-up, and learns how to make their own clothes in today's fashion world.

frank bernat shows joanne marchanoni how to bite into an apple on a string at the club's annual get together.

oea-data processing is combined with all types of students. some dream of being a housewife, some a teacher, and some going to college. but they all have one thing in common, the data processing program at trimble tech high.

this course provides students with such equipment as keypunch, reproducer, accounting, sorter, and the computer machines. these are furnished by the public schools system and tech is the only high school in the southwest with the ibm equipment used in modern business today.

each year the club sponsors different activities. this year there have been such things as a junior/senior party, christmas party in which mr. and mrs. santa claus made special guest appearances, the bulldog project and the "love calendar".

suzanna hare was chosen data processing who's who with teresa hair being the 1972-73 oea sweetheart.

oea members enjoy one of their many parties.

look mom!!! no teeth!!! exclaims margie ingram a junior oea member.

teresa hair was selected the oea sweetheart for the 1972-73 school year. teresa has been junior class officer and is also serving as historian of this year's senior class. she has been "b" cheerleader and is on the varsity team this year.

teresa has a great look on life, her classes, and her work which makes it a pleasure to know her. the oea chapter no. 1 is proud to have teresa as their sweetheart and hope she is proud in being our special one.

tech's first four-year grads four years ago a freshman class entered technical high school, a senior high that was new to them and they were new to the rest of the high school.

destined to be an outstanding group they plotted their courses. the class did things as freshmen that sometimes overshadowed the other classes.

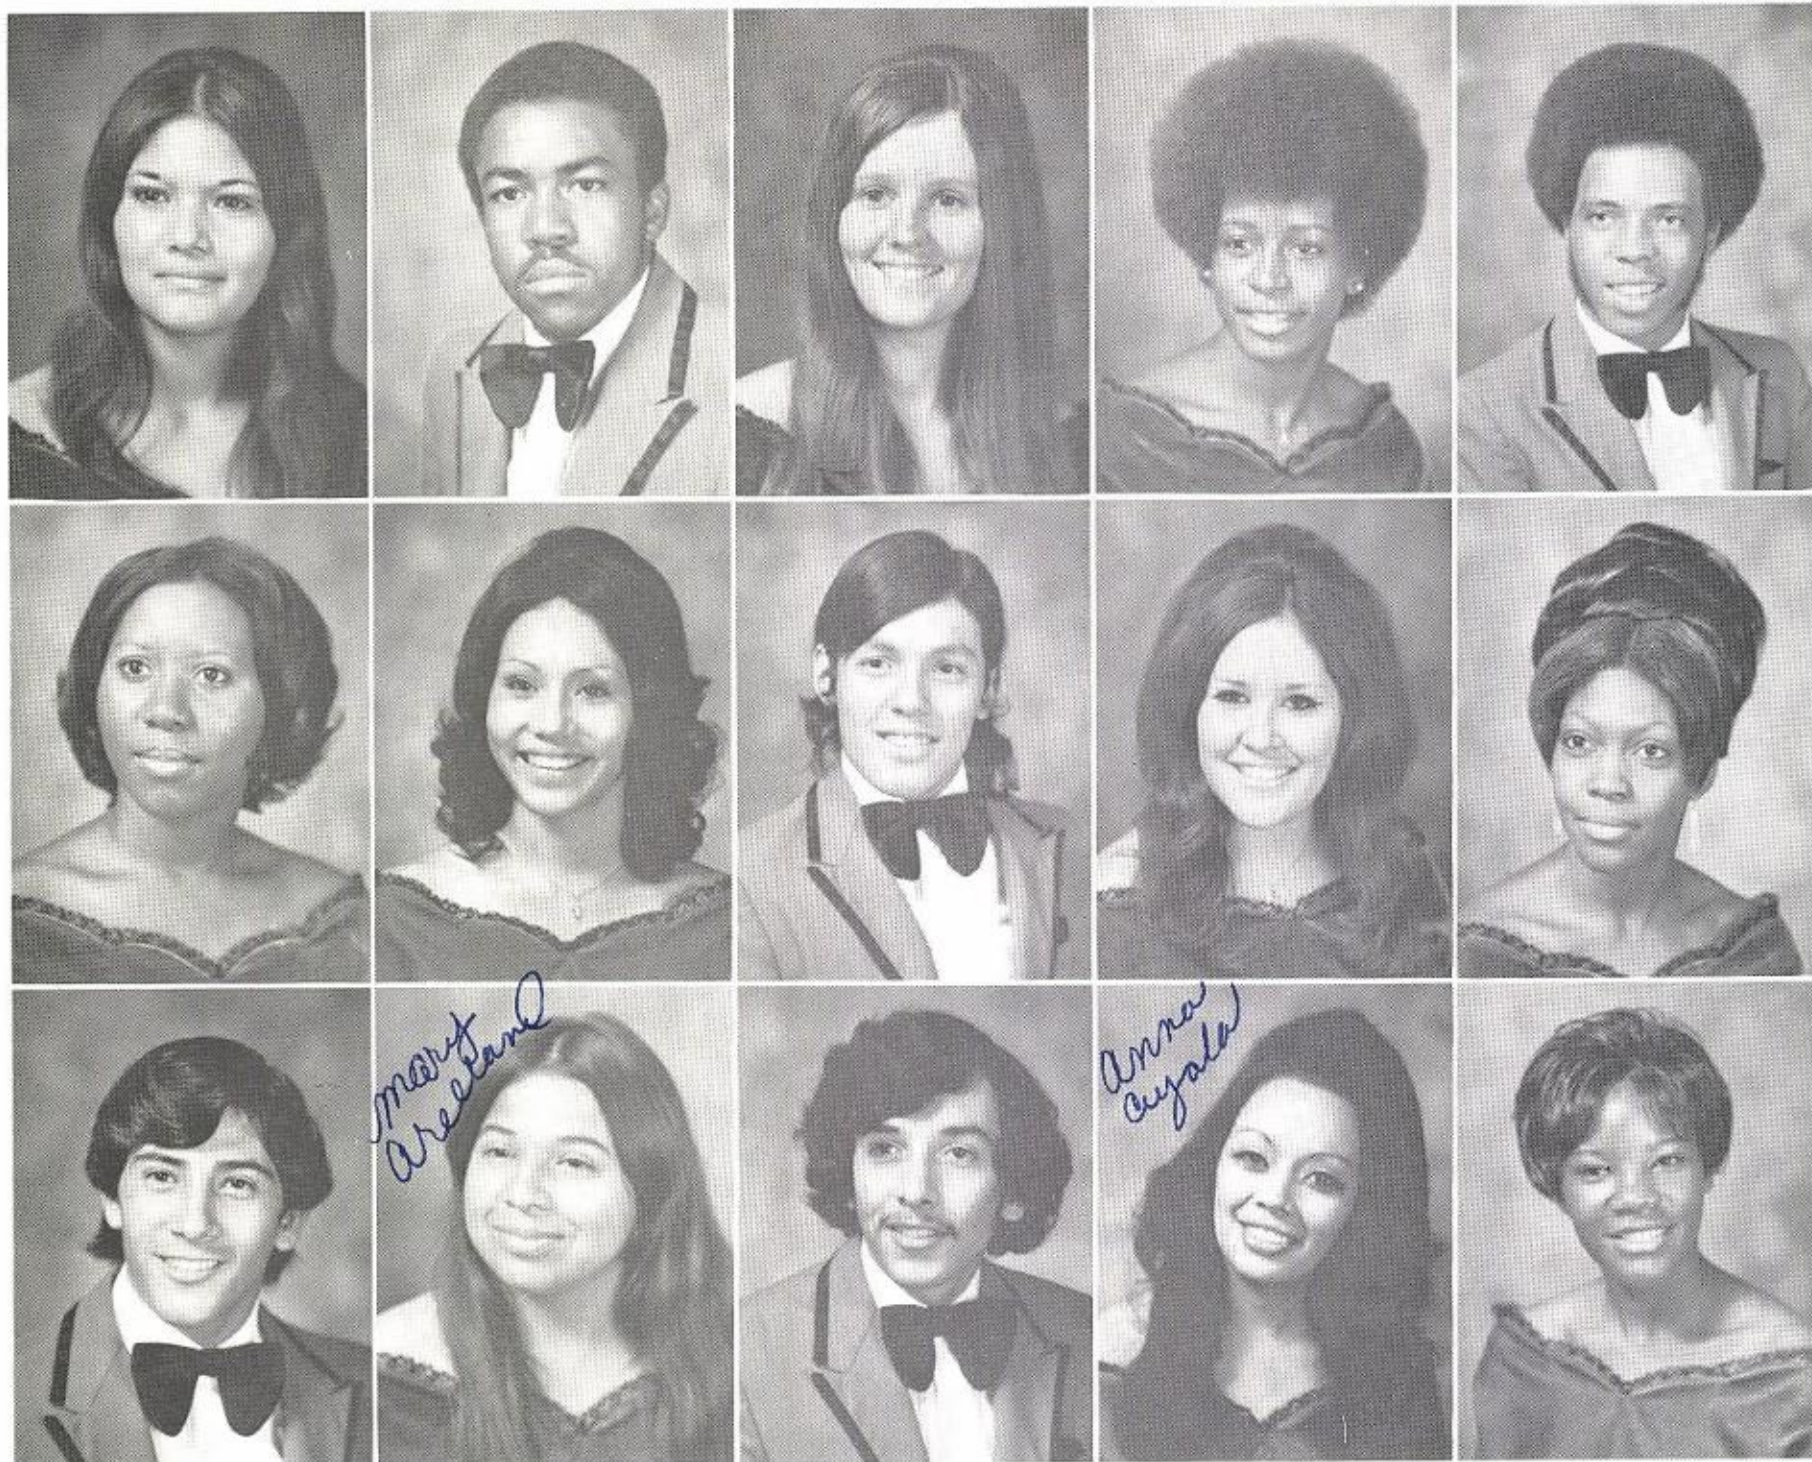

this was the first class that cared about their fellow freshmen to the extent of setting standards of achievements.

now as seniors, they can look back with pride on their four years at tech when they will have graduated.

their mark on the school, the many outstanding students of the class of '73 will be emulated by those who follow.

the class of '73 sponsors are: mrs. bobbie long, four years service; mr. buck russell, one year service; mr. alton fonville, four years service; and miss cindy ford, one year service (not pictured here).

'74 senior class loaded with school spirit

in an interview with elsa martinez, vice-president of junior class, she said, "as vice-president i am willing to help my fellow officers in all fund raising projects and i encourage all juniors to take part in this. we need all the help we can get for we have to give the seniors their prom, and that is a big task.

i am really looking forward to next year when we go on the trimester. it will be great to be able to take more electives. the class of '74 is willing to meet this challenge for we will be the first class to have graduated under this new plan.

this is my first year as a class officer and i am delighted to take part in the activities of this, the best class at tech."

sponsors who have been with this class since the ninth grade are mr. ray parish, mrs. julia cochran, and mr. jo woods.

thailand students study the english language at tech each year tech has thailand students who come here to learn english as a second language. these students come over to the u.s. to get a better education. their one goal is to learn our language. at tech we offer a special course to help them toward their goal.

as the only high school to do this we hope that tech will be a part of their lives in the future.

coach bruce ross
varsity coach

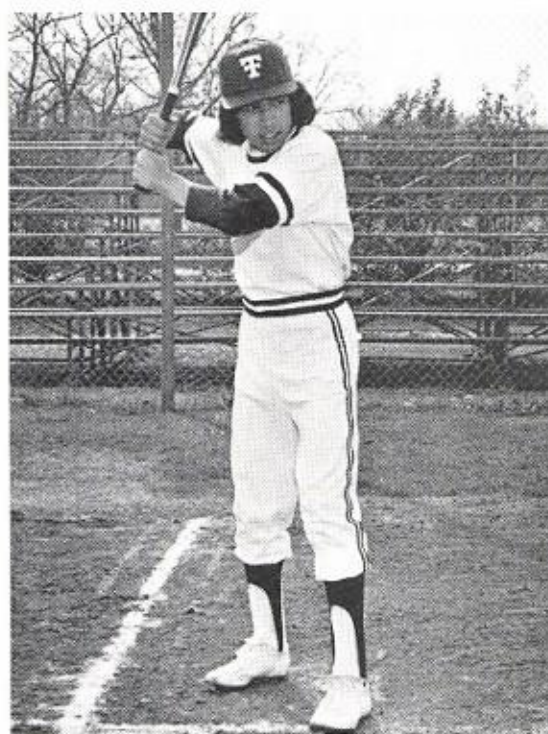

the trimble tech baseball booster club was formed this year to promote both the team's and school's spirit and to include those parents who wanted to help the team. the club's main function is to keep the team working together for the school and to keep the parents informed on the development of the team. this club was a dream of coach ross and coach stacy to see parents, students, and team members involved for the good of the team and school.

love - tech is tennis first score for '73

mrs. carmen poe's and mr. john campbell's tennis teams have become a credit to tech.

tennis requires exceptional talent. the team members practice from two to three hours after school, some days even more. such long hours of practice is what has made our tennis teams superior. the training that is obtained by participating in a sport such as tennis is an invaluable form of physical fitness.

badminton team: sharon jones, marie arreguin, pat moss, lupe quintanar.

to find a theme that is symbolic of the spirit of tech is the first challenge of the annual staff. with this completed, the real work begins. the staff realize that is their responsibility to make a history of this year at tech and to work long hours to achieve this purpose. it isn't always easy. there are moments when everyone wonders if it is possibly worth the effort. there are the gripes of the students (everyone seems to know better than the staff how to do it), the disfavor of the teachers when it becomes necessary to be out of class and the disfavor of the sponsor when layouts aren't on time.

after many tearful, sometimes anger filled moments, the book is finished. next come the weeks of anxious waiting. will it look like it was intended to look? most important of all, will the students like it? when the books arrive, will the students say "thanks for a job well done?" then all the work will become a pleasant memory. it will be a year long remembered by each member of the staff.

students elect pena to serve as student body president the office of student body president is very time consuming. it requires a very special kind of student-- daniel pena is this special kind. his duties have been many and varied. all require a special talent in handling.

probably the foremost qualities that daniel possesses that fit him for the job are tact and a sense of humor.

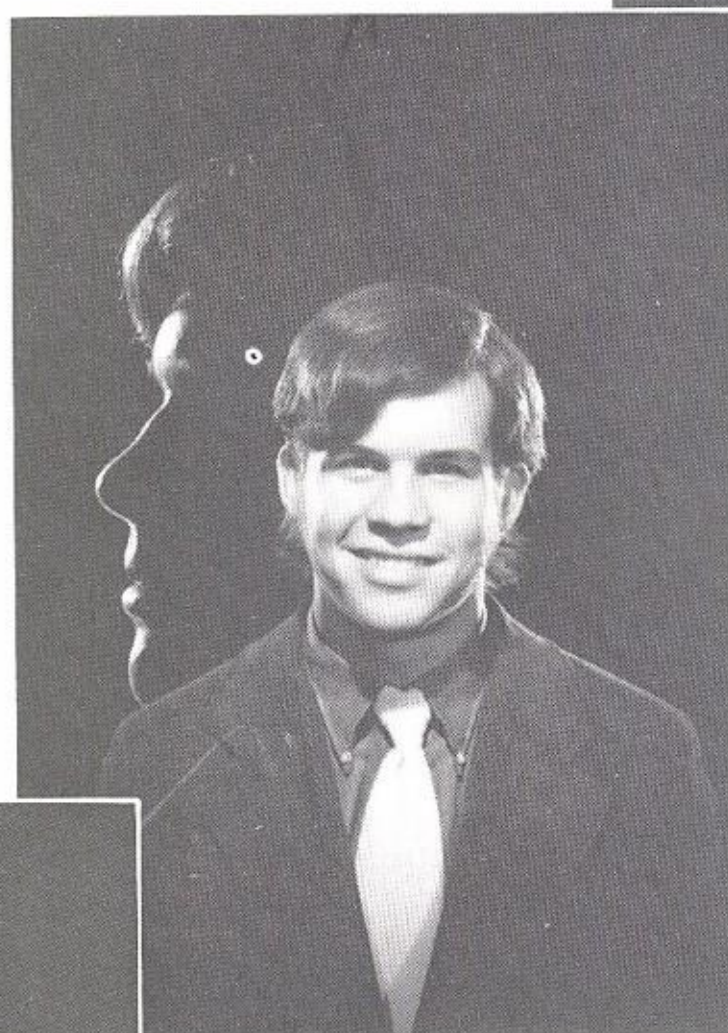

for his untiring leadership the year-book staff wishes to say along with the students and faculty "thanks" for a job well done.

those who excel

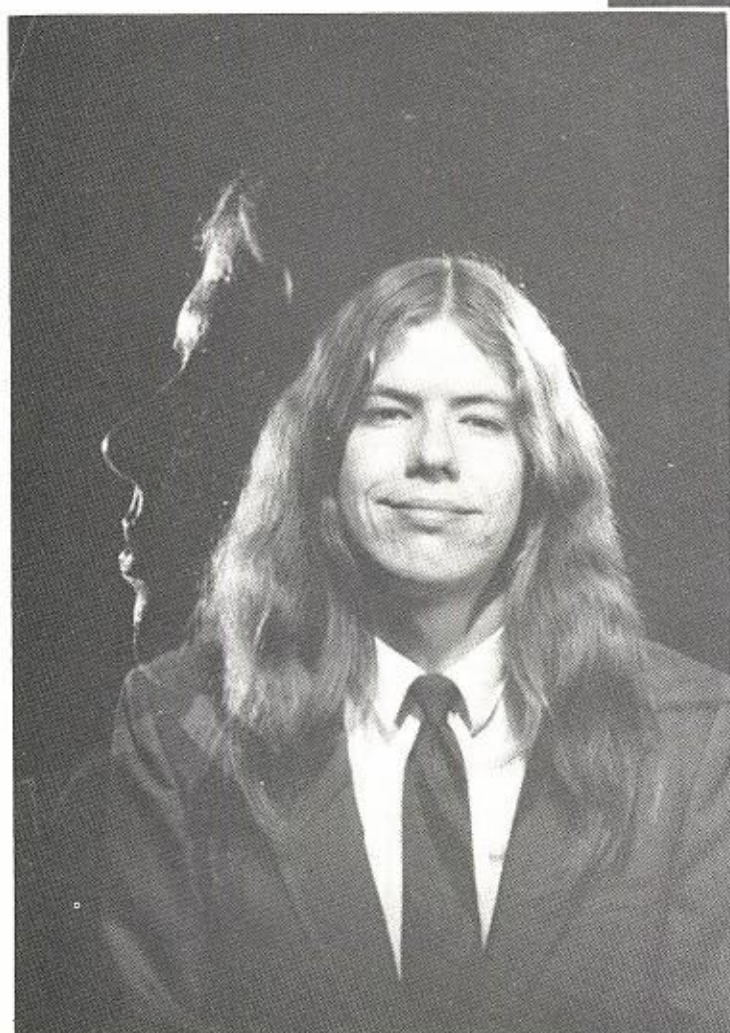

who's who represents a very select group of students - these are the people who have worked four years to maintain a high average in all subjects, and at the same time excel in one special area. they represent the best in trimble tech.
